Prepare For Next Sunday’s Readings

Next Sunday, we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection. Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. The only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead. Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.

A Pilgrim's Progress

Today we begin the most important week of the Church liturgical year. I strongly encourage all of our parishioners and guests to participate.

The word Triduum is Latin for "three days." Our "Sacred Paschal Triduum" is the three days we mark the Paschal Mystery, the Crucifixion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We begin with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday and conclude with the Easter Vigil on Saturday night. It is to be seen as one liturgy celebrated over three days rather than three separate celebrations.

Thursday night we remember the Last Supper when Christ instituted the Sacraments of Holy Orders and the Holy Eucharist. At the "end" of the liturgy there is a procession through the assembly with the Holy Eucharist to the "altar of repose" where all are invited like the apostles to "remain here and keep watch" in the Garden of Gethsemane.

On Good Friday we remember the passion and death of our Lord. The tabernacle is empty and the church seems bare. The Passion of the Lord is always proclaimed from the Gospel of John. It is followed by the Veneration of the Cross which reminds us that through the Cross the glory of the Resurrection is achieved. All come forward to venerate the cross by kissing it, kneeling or bowing before it, or a simple touch.

Then comes the general intercessions. The entire Church throughout the world prays the same intercessions on this day. We pray for Christian unity, our Jewish brothers and sisters, non-believers, civil authorities, and those living a share in the cross.

As Good Friday is the only day of the year when mass is not celebrated, Holy Communion is received from sacred hosts consecrated on Holy Thursday night. All leave the church in silence or remain for a period of continued veneration of the Cross.

The celebration of the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night tells the story of our salvation. It begins outside of the church with the lighting of the Easter fire and Paschal Candle. With lit candles the faithful process into church for the singing of the Exsultet or Easter Proclamation.

An expanded Liturgy of the Word traces time through Salvation History from creation to the first Easter morning. The Sacraments of Christian initiation are celebrated with Baptisms, Confirmations, and first receptions of the Holy Eucharist taking place. This year we will also have additional Baptisms, Confirmations, and first Eucharists throughout Easter week.

Please continue to pray for all those who will be sharing in the Sacraments of initiation this Easter.

A Blessed Holy Week to you and yours, Sail On!
Fr John
